In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Heidi Strobl-Ban

21224 poinciana southfield mi 48033

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This data breach sacrificed my personal information and the time and resources required to make sure my identity has not been stolen are worth my time to object to this settlement.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Dear Honorable Thomas Thrash Jr.,

My family has incurred costs far greater than the $5 settlement due to this data breach. While I am not expecting to be completely made whole with this settlement, I am expecting that you will take the appropriate actions in holding this company accountable for the damage that they have negligently inflicted on millions of people. If you allow them to "settle" for such a small amount, and receive a slap on the wrist, my fear is that this WILL happen again. Please do the right thing for the people that have suffered as a result of their negligence.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Matthew Bendiksen

1309 Placer Drive, Allen, TX, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☐
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I may attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The agreed upon settlement is a joke and a small slap on the wrist. Equifax's disregard for our data, which we never gave them permission to collect, is atrocious. They should be held liable to the largest extent possible.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

It is not fair that our private social security numbers were hacked during this period with Equifax, and so now what, it's the customer's problem? It is Equifax's responsibility to protect our information. And since they did not have the appropriate measures in place to prevent being hacked, they should be held accountable for paying its customers the 150-200 dollars that we had to pay to protect ourselves from their mistake. Allowing them to pay less than 10 dollars per person does help anything. It just helps Equifax tonhave a lesser amount to pay.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This is more than a breach of security, it is a breach of trust. Our financial wellbeing relies on the information included on our credit reports. To have our personal information hacked in this way and possibly manipulated by outside forces jeopardizes entire families many of whom are struggling financially as it is.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Gunta Rafael

1725 Park Avenue, Hanover Park, IL, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I expect to be represented by an attorney.

Rueben Metcalfe

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I believe that Equifax has taken away my right to privacy. They should be penalized as would other companies who do the same. Equifax is large and holds our personal information in their hands. Stop letting these companies get away with damaging the people they swore to protect.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

It is my understanding that the settlement offer payments are going to be less than $10 per person, instead of the $125 to $250 as advertised. I believe the breach led to my Social Security number to be stolen and used by someone to apply for credit. It cost me several hours of my time to notify the three credit reporting agencies of this use and place warnings on my account. I believe that the settlement offer would be a slap on the wrist for a company that makes several billion dollars a year selling consumers data without their consent - and that they should not be allowed to buy their way out of it with a bait-and-switch settlement offer for a fraction of the original amount.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Yvonne Hernandez

401 North 28th Street #637, Las Vegas, NV, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax has a duty to fairly compensate all consumers affected or potentially affected by their breach.

Deborah Murch

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I have already been impacted by the credit breach. I had to put a freeze on my credit, which prevented me from opening a savings account online last week. This account would have allowed me to earn twice the rate of interest that I currently do. My only recourse is to go to one of these banks in person; unfortunately, there are none in my area. If I make a mistake, I am responsible and make amends, and these credit bureaus need to do the same.

It seems to me that $10 is a very small amount, even multiplied by a factor of a million. My only income is social security. A threat to that is quite frightening.

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The thousands of people affected by the security breach have spent their time, energy and money to ensure that their information stored with a credit agency had not been used to create stolen identities. To receive a class settlement of $100-$125 was insulting enough, because Equifax makes millions of dollars each year. But now we are told that the settlement amount would be even less? That is totally unacceptable. There's no real penalty for these huge companies to increase security on their computer systems.

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I have credit monitoring but it is crazy thst a credit monitoring and reporting firm can't be held accountable

Wow, personal data and possibly my livelihood and everything attached to my name was breached and all that is worth is a lousy $5.

No wonder companies don't bother protecting us if that is all the punishment they get for not doing so.

They need a MUCH bigger deterrent for not following the rules and safeguarding their customers.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I feel the potential harm is grossly undervalued by this settlement. This is a major credit bureau responsible for very sensitive data and they have acted recklessly and need to be held responsible. They initially promised $125 to each person impacted, however they are now claiming that the payout will only be $10. I feel my personal data being breached is worth more than a paltry sum of money and an offer by said company to monitor my credit. Why would I trust the company that breached my data to safeguard it now? Please send a clear message to this company that this will not be easily swept under the rug with broken promises and inadequate compensation for harm and potential harm.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Your Honor,

It is a humiliating insult being offered five to ten dollars fby a multi-million dollar company who completely failed to uphold their obligation to protect the very sensitive information they gather on the American public. Allowing them to settle for so little sets a horrible precedent for other companies who fail to protect the very sensitive information they are entrusted with.

Sincerely,
Jason Kaether

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax is a company that makes billions in profit. In recent times, many of these very profitable companies have had data breaches or otherwise sold data that they should not have been able to sell. This results in a high amount of fraud/impersonation and the costs are not paid by these companies, but by the consumer.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

While I originally joined the settlement, the more I read about it, the more I realize it simply doesn't go far enough. EcUse of Equifax's gross mismanagement of my data, I will have to keep my credit reports locked for the rest of my life. I'll need to have identity theft protection services for life as well.

Frankly I think this company should be made to close its doors. But if that can't happen, I believe a much more severe judgment is necessary to more accurately reflect the grievous nature of their failure. Please send a message that this kind of behavior will see severe retribution.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax is a multi-million dollar company, they have no reason to not justly and fairly compensate those of us affected by the data breach due to their negligent handling of personal data, and it is an insult to think they can simply get away with offering less than $10 to each person who deserves reparations. I think a proper financial loss would help reinforce the importance of keeping data secure and private.

Thank you

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This settlement is inadequate because it fails to provide a substantive restitution for many members of the class. Free credit reporting is already easily and automatically available to many members of the class. Many credit cards, banks, and credit reporting website offer free credit reporting. Through my work place benefits, I also have free access to identity theft and credit dispute assistance. I would suspect that many other members of the class have access to similar benefits. Based on information available from the FTC, the monetary compensation was never a serious option for many class members. In response to the Equifax breach, I froze all of my credit reports. This means that due to Equifax's negligence I will have to freeze and unfreeze my credit reports any time I need to apply for a line of credit for the rest of my life. This is a continuing obligation for which I am not compensated.

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I may attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Ifax had

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I don't feel like a $5-10 settlement check is appropriate for the huge social security break that equifax had.

Sir,

The settlement seems pretty inadequate. Is that really all Experian is going to be responsible for? In regards to our very important information going missing and sold off?

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Consumers have no choice in having equifax manage our data. They flaunted that trust and now want to avoid responsibility. It's not about the money (to me). Heck, give it to an orphanage or an animal sanctuary. But Equifax must feel the pain of this data breach so that they don't do it again and as a warning to other companies.

Lynnette Gralak

902 Autumn Park Dr. Apt C. North Platte Ne. 69101

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☐
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I've had people calling me up with my credit card numbers trying to get more info from them. I had a loan officer call me about the last steps in a loan, they were using an old address of mine. I get one call after another. I put a freeze on all 3 credit bureaus to had to lift it for a credit check. This has caused hell on my life. I don't know really how bad it is on my social security card or any of my private info. They even have aliases I use to use.

Equifax is one agency that the American people are suppose to be able to trust and rely on their information being secure. But they are not nor the other agencies along with them that have all American's life information....this is wrong.....first they should be held more accountable and 2nd why allow 3 different agencies to do the same work? Is this not confusing and unfair. More needs to be done to hold them accountable.

Today's society is based more and more on our credit. Our homes we live in..The cars we drive.. Even the clothes we wear...

People rather take money than earn it the old fashion way.. WORK

I feel they should give all effected not only compensation financially but also repair the credit scores by removing all accounts in collections and guard unquiries

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Hello Judge Thrash,

To cut straight to the chase, this settlement is an absolute disgrace! It stinks!

A company that, due to sheer incompetence, lost some of the most valuable data of 147 million consumers, looks set to get off almost completely unscathed. The constant addition of hurdles to those seeking compensation is mind blowing and the fact consumers' share of that compensation keeps getting less is dishonourable in the extreme. Equifax is making it harder to keep one's data safe. At least their shareholders can keep smiling - they're the only ones who seem to count!

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

As Equifax stock prices rise, it becomes clear that this penalty is minor in the grand scheme. A minor annoyance to Equifax at best. Breaching the public's trust should be something felt much deeper than a monetary slap on the wrist all the while inflating the value of their shares. Corporate America is greedy and equifax will simply laugh off this settlement while they done on expensive wines and imported cheeses.
